

Each year the American Dietetic Association gives MDA the opportunity to recognize dietitians in our state who have made significant contributions to our profession. These awards are: Recognized Young Dietitian of the Year Award (RYDY), Emerging Dietetic Leader Award (EDL), and Outstanding Dietitian of the Year Award (ODY) .

MDA also asks district associations and MS dietetic practice groups to nominate individuals outside the field of dietetics for the Magnolia Award. Nominees for this award should have demonstrated an interest or shown support in nutrition and dietetics.

Below you will find the criteria for each award. If you know someone who meets these qualifications and you would like to nominate them as a candidate for an award, please submit the information below to the nominating committee by February 10, 2012.

Award Nomination Criteria

Recognized Young Dietitian of the Year Award (RYDY)

The purpose of the RYDY program is to recognize the competence and activities of younger dietitians in The American Dietetic Association and to encourage their continued participation in Association affairs. This group will be an additional resource from which the leadership of The Association will develop both at the district, state, and national levels. In addition to publishing the list of RYDYs in the Journal of The American Dietetic Association, each awardee will receive a formal certificate of recognition from the President of the Association.

Criteria for Selection

1. Member of The American Dietetic Association.
2. Age limit as of April 1 deadline, 35 years or younger.
3. Active participation in the national, state, or district association.
4. Not previously selected as an RYDY.
5. Demonstrated concern for the promotion of optimal health and nutritional status of the population.
6. Demonstrated leadership, e.g., in legislation, research, education, management, etc., either in the Association or employment.

Emerging Dietetic Leader Award (EDL)

The purpose of the Emerging Dietetic Leader Award is to recognize the competence and activities of dietitians regardless of their age, who have made distinctive contributions early in their dietetics careers to the American Dietetic Association. The award encourages their continued participation in Association affairs. This more mature/older group will be an additional resource from which the leadership of the Association will develop at the district, state, and national levels.
